

Indiana State Library and Historical Building #1

Marion County, IN
