We spoke out for our religious and political ideals.

Old South Meeting House
Boston, Massachusetts

Built in 1729, this church was used for town meetings and assemblies in the era before the Revolutionary War broke out. One of the colonists' complaints against the British government was that they were being unfairly taxed. Led by Samuel Adams, the "Sons of Liberty" held a meeting on December 16, 1773, to organize the Boston Tea Party. You know what happened after that!
