Statement of Significance

Rolling Meadows is significant under criterion C for circa 1840 as an example of how Madison County builders chose elements from the Greek Revival style such as a wide cornice and one-story, single bay, flat-roofed porch with square posts on a single-pile, central passage house. In the late nineteenth century, elements from the Italianate style such as brackets beneath the eaves and returns on the gable ends were added.

Verbal Boundary Justification

The boundary was chosen arbiterily to preserve the building's setback from the road and to exclude non-contributing outbuildings on the west and north. The road (Ky 595) forms the east boundary and the driveway forms the north boundary.

The boundary includes one contributing building.
