

#1
This is a typical example of the bedding in the sandstone.
The bedding is horizontal.

L & L Turnpike - portion of quarry

L&N Turnpike - original turnpike surface exposed approximately 20 inches below paved surface on road side near quarry.

L&N Turnpike - looking south near north end of segment nominated. Quarry behind shelter; sign at right back ground is near exposure of original turnpike.

12N Turnpike - retaining wall adjoining creek

#1 E N Turnpike - Stone Bridge #1 east
face

L & N Turnpike - Stone Bridge #1, west face. and portion of retaining wall

1 1/2 N Turnpike - Stone Bridge #2, South

fall

L&N Turnpike - Stone Bridge #2, north face. Reinforced with cement 1940's.

LEN Turnpike - Stone Bridge "2", west face.

↳ LN Turnpike - retaining wall adjoining Creek, between Dripping Springs and Stone Bridge #3.

LRN Turnpike - general view of turnpike approximately 250 m south of Stone

Bridge #3

LEIN Turnpike - Stone Bridge #3, east face

EN Tumpike - Stone Bridge # 3 west face