

MONUMENT TO MUSIC -- New York's Carnegie Hall, familiarly known as the Old Lady of 57th Street, was sketched by an artist of the mid-1920's as crowds converged on it for a concert. Newly refurbished, the buff-colored building with Florentine motifs celebrates its 75th anniversary in the 1966-67 season. (60-15380. Accompanies Arts and Men column F-66-358.)

NO LEFT TURN

REHAB FOR ROOM

CARNegie HALL

COFFEE SHOP

CINEMA

NO LEFT TURN

Carnegie Hall,
courtesy of the Carnegie Hall Corporation

circa 1973, confirmed 1975 by R.E. Greenwood

Front (north) and side (west) elevations

Carnegie Hall, circa 1973
courtesy: Carnegie Hall Corporation

verified: 1975
R.E. Greenwood

Front (north) facade