A black and white photograph of a single-story brick building, identified as First State Savings. The building features a prominent gabled roof on the left side and a portico with columns on the right. A tall signpost stands in front of the building, displaying the text "FIRST STATE SAVINGS" in a stylized font. The sign also includes a logo with a stylized 'S' and 'F' and a small image of a building. In the foreground, a dark car is parked on the left, and a light-colored station wagon is parked on the right. A person and a child are walking on the sidewalk in front of the building. The sky is bright and overcast.
