SCRIPTION		1
Alice French, pen name O	ctave Thanet, was a regional fiction writer from 1878 through c. 1910. She was	s published in the popular literary journals of the day, including Scribners	, Atlantic Monthly, Harper's and Century. The Man of the Hour set in "Fai:	rport", fictional Davenport, was her most popular novel, appearing in 1905	She had more than 50 short stories and 21 books published. French was the	he principle author of a group of local writers known as the "Davenport Writers	s Group". French alternated residence between Davenpor	t and Arkansas, considering	g Davenport her permanent residence. French abandoned writing for social work :	in her later years. Special interests were the public library, anti-women's su	fferage groups and other patriotic groups.
