John Hunt Morgan Memorial
Fayette County, Kentucky

Section number 7,8, 10

Description The John Hunt Morgan Memorial on the courthouse lawn in Lexington is two parts: a bronze statute and a granite pedestal. The monument was erected in 1911 by the United Daughters of the Confederacy with financial support from the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The monument is approximately 20 feet tall with the statute slightly taller than the pedestal. The pedestal is plain except for the front and rear inscriptions: "Genal John Hunt Morgan and His Men" (front), "Erected by Kentucky Division United Daughters of the Confederacy" (rear). The equestrian statute is very typical 19th Century figures. Morgan is astride a horse, with hat in hand at his side. The statue is facing south.

Statement of Significance The John Hunt Morgan Memorial meets National Register Criterion A and is significant within the context of "Civil War Monuments in Kentucky, 1861-1935." This is a good example of property type "statute." It is one of only two equestrian Civil War monuments in the state and the only one that has the figure attired in a uniform. The monument was erected in 1911 by the United Daughters of the Confederacy with some financial support from the Commonwealth of Kentucky. This monument was erected as a tribute to Morgan and his legacy. It was a celebration and the unveiling attracted thousands of people.

Verbal Boundary Description - The John Hunt Morgan Monument whose boundaries form a circle with a radius of fifteen feet centered on the monument located on the east lawn of the Fayette County Courthouse.

Verbal Boundary Justification - The area associated with the monument is restricted to the ground on which the monument sits and a small buffer around it. The setting outside such a restricted area is not seen as critically important to maintaining an integrity of association. Because the focus of the multiple property submissions is the significance of the monuments, their proposed area of listing will reflect that they have been considered by-and-large, in isolation from their surrounds.
