A black and white photograph of a two-story church building. The building features a mix of light-colored stone masonry and large, smooth, light-colored panels. A prominent sign on the central panel reads "FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH". To the right, a birch tree with characteristic white bark and dark lenticels stands in front of the building. The tree is mostly bare, suggesting a cooler season. Several windows are visible, some with white frames and others with dark frames. A set of glass doors is located on the right side of the building. The foreground shows a sidewalk and some low-lying bushes.
