HISTORY: (cont.) and Pat Lyddan acquired the land and sold to John Able Thomas c. 1853. J. A. Thomas shows on the 1877 Beers map. According to tradition, the south front room was used only for Mass. As St. Rose was the only place to go, the owner set aside this room for Mass only and the priest would come once/mo. to hold Mass for the neighborhood.

DESCRIPTION: (cont.) plastered walls; central door has rosettes inside and out over transom; open string dog leg stair; Tapered newel post; simple balusters; no brackets; W. rm. has one cupboard on S. of chimney; mantel same as in E. rm.; Fed. door frames.

The windows of the house have been lengthened at some point, probably when the Victorian decorations were added. Evidence for this is the length of the window below the chairrail mentioned in the E. rm. and the alteration of the brick externally.
