45. Description and House plan: (continued)

Door in 2nd floor over main entry door. Small caps on corner boards. 1-story shed-roofed porch with sawn brackets and frieze is supported by paired slender posts. Stone foundation throughout wing. Small interior brick chimney. Frame addition extending ell to south dates from late 19th or early 20th century. The 2-story wing has built-in gutters, 2/2 sash with molded cornices. One-story porch with turned posts along east side of both sections of ell.

Interior: Greek earred trim in brick section, also chairrailing both rooms. Simple Greek Revival mantels in both rooms first floor

The nominated area includes one contributing building; two non-contributing buildings.

The expansion of the house into a typical center-passage form mitigated its unusualness in the late 19th century, an enlargement which simutaneously referred to the assymettrical T-plan variation of the center-passage form by holding its facade back from the original front.
