Sample of hand-carved wooden double-seated Chariot. One of two chariots on this carousel.

Figure possess a very "art-deco" styling, and expresses a common theme of mythology.

NOTE double row of scenery panels at back of upper sweeps used to hid the machinery.

Sample of hand-carved wooden "masque" which is at the center of each shield cover. Each one is unique, and a typical decoration used by Allan Herschell. Also shown is a typical bounding board which has a reproduction of paintings used to adorn Allan Herschell carousels. As this was a "park" machine, the decorations were a little more elaborate.
