

New York Dec. 11th 1852

R. P. Hunt Esq. ~~care~~

Dear Sir,

We have your favors of the 9th and 10th today - Shall register your draft and send the funds on Monday -

The Inventory is received and we have sent it to Boston for any remarks they may have to make in regard to it, and will write to you -

We send you 16 bales Cotton which will arrive before you want which will carry you through the next week - We will bring another lot in good time but as the market is falling we can only bring from week to week -

We charged you with the 6 & 14 bales of Cotton and shall credit you with the sale of 12 bales goods.

We shall per an account with

"Watkins Cotton Goods" —

This acc^t we charge with the last 16 bales of Cotton and shall also charge it with the Inventory when ratified at Boston, and with all payments made and credit it with sales of goods —

~~With you tell us of the drafts~~

You had better draw all the drafts in your name, which on acceptance we shall charge to above acc^t — The proceeds of the same when we send them to you we shall charge to you and credit you with your account of disbursements —

The various things ordered in your letter we will send immediately —

Will write again on Monday —

How long do you estimate the supply of Coal will last — We wish it distinctly understood as we have before written that ^{it} will be optional on our part to run the Mill in the manner proposed after the 1st of May 1853 — That is to say there will be no obligation on our part to do so —

Yours truly

Amey Patterson & Co.
