

The adobe structures of this military post were partially restored by CCC labor during the 1930's, but have since continued to deteriorate. Site is now a state park.

10/15/66 doe