History of Structure: The Grotto Residence is the oldest building extant in the Park. Built as the Park Museum in 1924, it was remodelled into a dwelling in 1936 by Harry Langley, Branch of Plans and Design. The remodelling was a CCC project completed that year. It received further interior remodelling in 1947 "to improve utilization of space".

Evaluation of Structure: Historic Theme Contributing Non-Contributing

National Register Criteria: A B C D (Include integrity statement)
Built of red sandstone, the exterior of the residence retains its original fabric and character typical of the NPS-Rustic style at Zion.
