Walt Whitman House, North (front) elevation in centerground.

58-11696

Camden, N.J.: Interior view of a first floor in the Walt Whitman house. Room contains glass cases of correspondence, manuscripts and mementos associated with the poet. At the right, above the cupboards is a stuffed parrot which the poet enjoyed for a number of years and after the birds death, had it mounted. The picture at left is presumed to be one of Walt Whitman's mother, Louisa.
