Description The Lloyd Tilghman Monument is located in the center of Lang Park in Paducah. It is approximately twelve feet tall and consists of three distinct parts, the statue, a pedestal and a two tiered base. The statue is a bronze heroic likeness of Confederate Gen. Lloyd Tilghman. The hatless Tilghman is wearing a double breasted tunic coat, boots, gloves with his hand on the hilt of his sword. The statue is atop a pedestal that has an inscription on the face that reads: "Brigadier General Lloyd Tilghman C.S.A. killed at the Battle of Champion's Hill, Mississippi, May 16, 1863." This portion of the inscription is within a raised frame. Below that is another inscription that reads: "To the faithful sons of the Confederate States of America who gave all to uphold Constitutional; Liberty and States Rights." The pedestal rests upon a broad two tiered base that is approximately 17 feet and 25 feet square respectively.

Statement of Significance The Lloyd Tilghman Monument meets National Register criterion A and is significant within the context of "Civil War Monuments in Kentucky, 1861-1935." This monument was erected in 1909 with funds provided by the Tilghman family and the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The statue portion of the monument was created by Henry H. Kitson, an English artist who had done numerous other Civil War monuments nationally. The monument was created to honor the memory of Tilghman and his service in the Confederate army. It was placed in a highly public place and was unveiled with much ceremony. It was a celebration of Tilghman's life and war efforts. It is an excellent example of the property type "statue."

Verbal Boundary Description - The Lloyd Tilghman Monument whose boundaries form a circle with a radius of 30 feet centered on the monument located in Lang Park in Paducah, Kentucky.

Verbal Boundary Justification - The area associated with the monument is restricted to the ground on which the monument sits and a small buffer around it. The setting outside such a restricted area is not seen as critically important to maintaining an integrity of association. Because the focus of the multiple property submissions is the significance of the monuments, their proposed area of listing will reflect that they have been considered by-and-large, in isolation from their surrounds.
