The Old Stone Church (Presbyterian) is the oldest church in continuous use west of the Allegheny Mountains in this region. The churchyard burial ground was the first west of the mountains and is still used to fulfill its sacred function.

One stone, polished and engraved by one of the earlier members and placed in the original building over the doorway indicated the attitude of these early workhipers. "This building was erected in the year 1796 at the expense of a few of the first inhabitants of this land to commemorate their affection and esteem for the gospel of Jesus Christ reader if you are inclined to applaud their virtues give God the glory."

The architecture is simple and yet massive. Rectangular in shape, two stories tall, basic to the Old Virginia style buildings.
