Description

The Mason House is a single story, wood frame Craftsman residence. Its gable roof shelters its front gable plan. Two square brick chimneys rise from the roof: one from the ridge and the other from the eastern slope, toward the northern elevation. The roof is covered with composition shingles, the walls are sheathed with weatherboard, and the continuous foundation is cast concrete.

The southern or front elevation is composed of an off-center entrance placed to the east of the gable ridge above and flanked by a pair of six-over-one wood sash windows to the west and a single window of the same configuration to the east. A wrap-around hipped roof porch continues onto the eastern elevation and is supported by five wood box columns set upon a concrete floor. The eastern and western elevations are also fenestrated with six-over-one wood sash windows set singly or in groups and of various sizes. The southern elevation is composed of a full-length shed room which is lighted with six-over-one windows also and features a rear entrance.

The Mason House has suffered no discernable alterations. It is in good condition.

Significance

Criterion C, local significance

The Mason House (Part E, Historic Context #4) is the best example in Bradford of a single story, wood frame, front gabled Craftsman style residence. Constructed in 1935, this house is typical of the third period in the evolution of Craftsman style designs in White County. Its floor plan has become very regular and symmetrical and features only the vestiges of the irregularity of plan and elevation which was one of the hallmark features of this building style.

Reviewer's Comments

The boundaries of this property are presently located along building lines. A resource listed in the National Register should include all features of the property which contribute to its significance. In almost all cases this includes its historic setting. Page 77 of National Register Bulletin 16, Guidelines for Completing National Register of Historic Places Forms, states that "the boundaries of buildings should include the land surrounding the building, unless the lot occupied by the building contains no surrounding land as in the central business district of most cities."

Please revise the boundaries to include the property historically associated with the resource. If a portion of the original setting has lost its integrity, please explain.
