A black and white photograph of a covered bridge. The bridge has a gabled roof and is supported by two large, light-colored concrete pillars at the entrance. A sign is mounted on the front of the bridge, reading "LOAD LIMIT 6 TONS". The bridge is surrounded by dense trees and foliage. The foreground shows a concrete wall and some vegetation. The bridge is covered in dark material, possibly wood or metal, and has a series of small, triangular openings along its side. The overall scene is a rural, wooded area.
