

1. 5/4 AFRICAN QUEEN

Key Largo, Monroe C., FL

2 3/4 AFRICAN QUEEN

Key Largo, Monroe Co., FL

3 3/4 AFRICAN QUEEN

Key Largo, Monroe Co., FL

AFRICAN QUEEN KEY LARGO, FLA.

4/ S/L AFRICAN QUEEN

Key Largo, Monroe Co., FL

5th S/L AFRICAN QUEEN

Key Largo, Monroe Co., FL

African Queen

6 S/L 19AFRICAN QUEEN

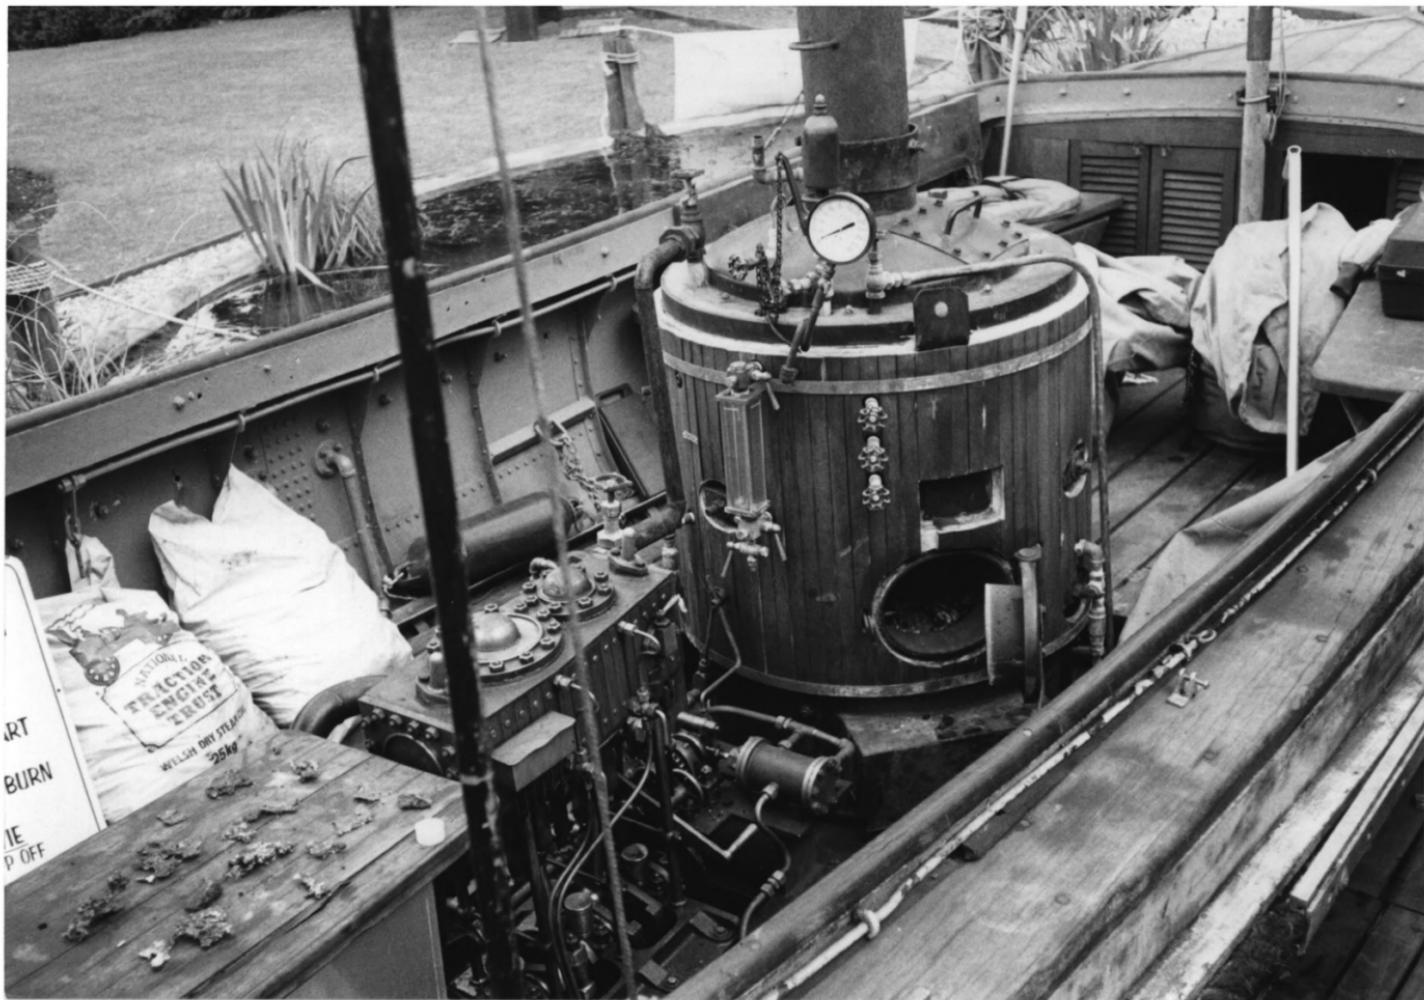

Key Largo, Monroe Co., FL

R114-76

7 S/L AFRICAN QUEEN

Key Largo, Monroe Co., FL

ART
BURN
IE
P OFF

NATIONAL TRACTION ENGINE TRUST
WELSH DRY STRAIN
25kg

8512 AFRI<sup>CA</sup> QUEEN
K. P. Y. Co., <sup>MAINTENANCE</sup> <sup>ORDER</sup> Co., AL

Steaming through the Mangroves in the Florida Keys is the original 1912 British built AFRICAN QUEEN. Star of Bogart's and Hepburn's movie of the same name. "The Queen", when not on tour, docks at the Holiday Inn in Key Largo, Florida 33037.

Photo by Stephen Frink

Humm's Color Graphics, P.O. Box 330712, Miami, FL 33133

1
1986

PLACE
POST CARD
POSTAGE
HERE

P19978

Post Card

The original African Queen, star of the Hepburn-Bogart movie, on the Thames framed by the magnificent London Tower Bridge with St. Paul's Cathedral in the background. Owner Jim Hendricks Sr. sounds steam whistle with Capt. Jim Hendricks Jr. in the boat. The African Queen's permanent home port and one of Florida's most interesting resorts is Key Largo's Holiday Inn, Key Largo, Florida 33037, 305-451-2121.

2

1986

post card

The African Queen just in front of the world famous architectural marvel, the Sydney Opera House, during the Sydney International Boat Show. The African Queen's permanent home port and one of Florida's most interesting full service resorts is Key Largo's Holiday Inn, Key Largo, Florida 33037, 305-451-2121.

3
1987

post card