Early Shopper

The storefront of the hardware store features a central glass door and two large display windows. The windows are filled with various hardware items and promotional signs. One sign in the left window says "Early Shopper" and another says "Windfall". A striped awning runs along the top of the storefront.

DRUG

The drug store storefront is characterized by a prominent scalloped-edge awning. Below the awning, there are several display windows and a central glass door. The windows contain various products and signs, including one that says "Early Shopper". A small sign on the sidewalk in front of the store reads "Early Shopper".
