FELLS POINT

Title: FELLS POINT HISTORIC DISTRICT, 1626 THAMES ST. 19-510

1626 THAMES STREET

3½ story dwelling

shipcaptain, merchant class dwelling

brick laid in flemish bond with all-header belt courses. (window lintels have been altered)

Seacaptain Forbes built this house and the next one as a pair (1626-1628) to form part of a row of similar houses (four remain) all of which have a roofline that parallels the street but the rears extend at a 45° angle. In a unique manner, the roof of each house at the rear is shaped like the hull of a ship. The attics are more than 15 feet high with large curving hewn timbers.

Presently in use as a taproom.

street facade faces South-East

Built circa 1775

A black and white photograph of a three-story brick building. The building has a dark roof with a small dormer window. The second and third floors each have three rectangular windows. A dark sign is mounted on the front of the building, featuring the text 'FOREIGN MARKET' in large, bold, white letters, with 'BALTIMORE, MARYLAND' in smaller letters below it. The ground floor is a storefront with large glass windows and a central door. The windows display various items, including boxes and a decorative birdcage. A street lamp is visible on the right side of the building. The building is situated on a street corner, with other buildings visible in the background.
