Mullins, SC 29574

Representation in Existing Surveys

South Carolina Inventory of Historic Places, 1982

Description

One-and-one-half story, brick (common bond) warehouse with stepped parapets on facade and rear elevation. The double gable roof is covered with metal. The original roof of the left section of the building, which collapsed in 1973, has been replaced. Windows on the facade are six-over-six. Facade also has two wood panel doors and two drive-through doors. Six arched loading bays are located on the left and right elevations.

Significance

Built ca. 1923 for W. H. Daniel, Jr, son of W. H. "Buck" Daniel, the Liberty Warehouse is significant as a basically intact traditional tobacco warehouse and for its association with the Daniel family, the most prominent family associated with tobacco in Mullins. ²⁴

Acreage ±2.50 acres

Verbal Boundary Description

The nominated property is shown as the red line on the accompanying Dillon County Tax Map #11, drawn at a scale of 1 inch = 100 feet. This boundary includes only the warehouse and the lot on which it is situated.
