R. Wild House/ Case House
710 Ann St. (S corner of 8th & Ann Sts.)
90-1

This 2½ story Queen Anne house on a corner lot has a characteristically picturesque plan and silhouette. Its multigabled roof is pierced by 3 tall chimneys; the gable ends are shingled and contain various window configurations, mostly d/s (diamond panes/1). A 3 story polygonal tower, now flat roofed, dominates the N corner. Most of the 1st and 2nd story windows are d/s (1/1); on the NE side they are curved to conform to 2 rounded projecting bays. The porch across the NW side is 3 bays with a hip and intersecting gable roof on paired, slender wooden columns. The balustrade below is stone. The doorway is contained in a broad rounded arch and is flanked by 2 elliptical stained glass windows; above the doorway is a pair of arched windows set in a similar arch. A one story enclosed porch is at the E corner.
