

LAS VEGAS HIGH SCHOOL

Las Vegas High School Administration

Building

315 South Seventh Street, Las Vegas, NV

Photo: K. Kuranda, 1986

HP&A, Carson City, Nevada

View southeast looking at northwest

entry pavillion

Photo 1 of 8

LAS VEGAS HIGH SCHOOL

GOOD LUCK
SENIORS
OF 1986

WALK

Las Vegas High School Administration

Building

315 South Seventh Street, Las Vegas, NV

Photo: K. Kuranda, 1986

HP&A, Carson City, Nevada

View south looking at northeast and northwest elevations

Photo 2 of 8

Las Vegas High School Administration
Building

315 South Seventh Street, Las Vegas, NV

Photo: K. Kuranda, 1986

HP&A, Carson City, Nevada

View southeast looking at northwest
elevation corner pavillion

Photo 3 of 8

GYMNASIUM

Las Vegas High School Gymnasium

Building

315 South Seventh Street, Las Vegas, NV

Photo: K. Kuranda, 1986

HP&A, Carson City, Nevada

View northwest looking at southeast entry pavillion.

Photo 4 of 8

Las Vegas High School Gymnasium

Building

315 South Seventh Street, Las Vegas, NV

Photo: K. Kuranda, 1986

HP&A, Carson City, Nevada

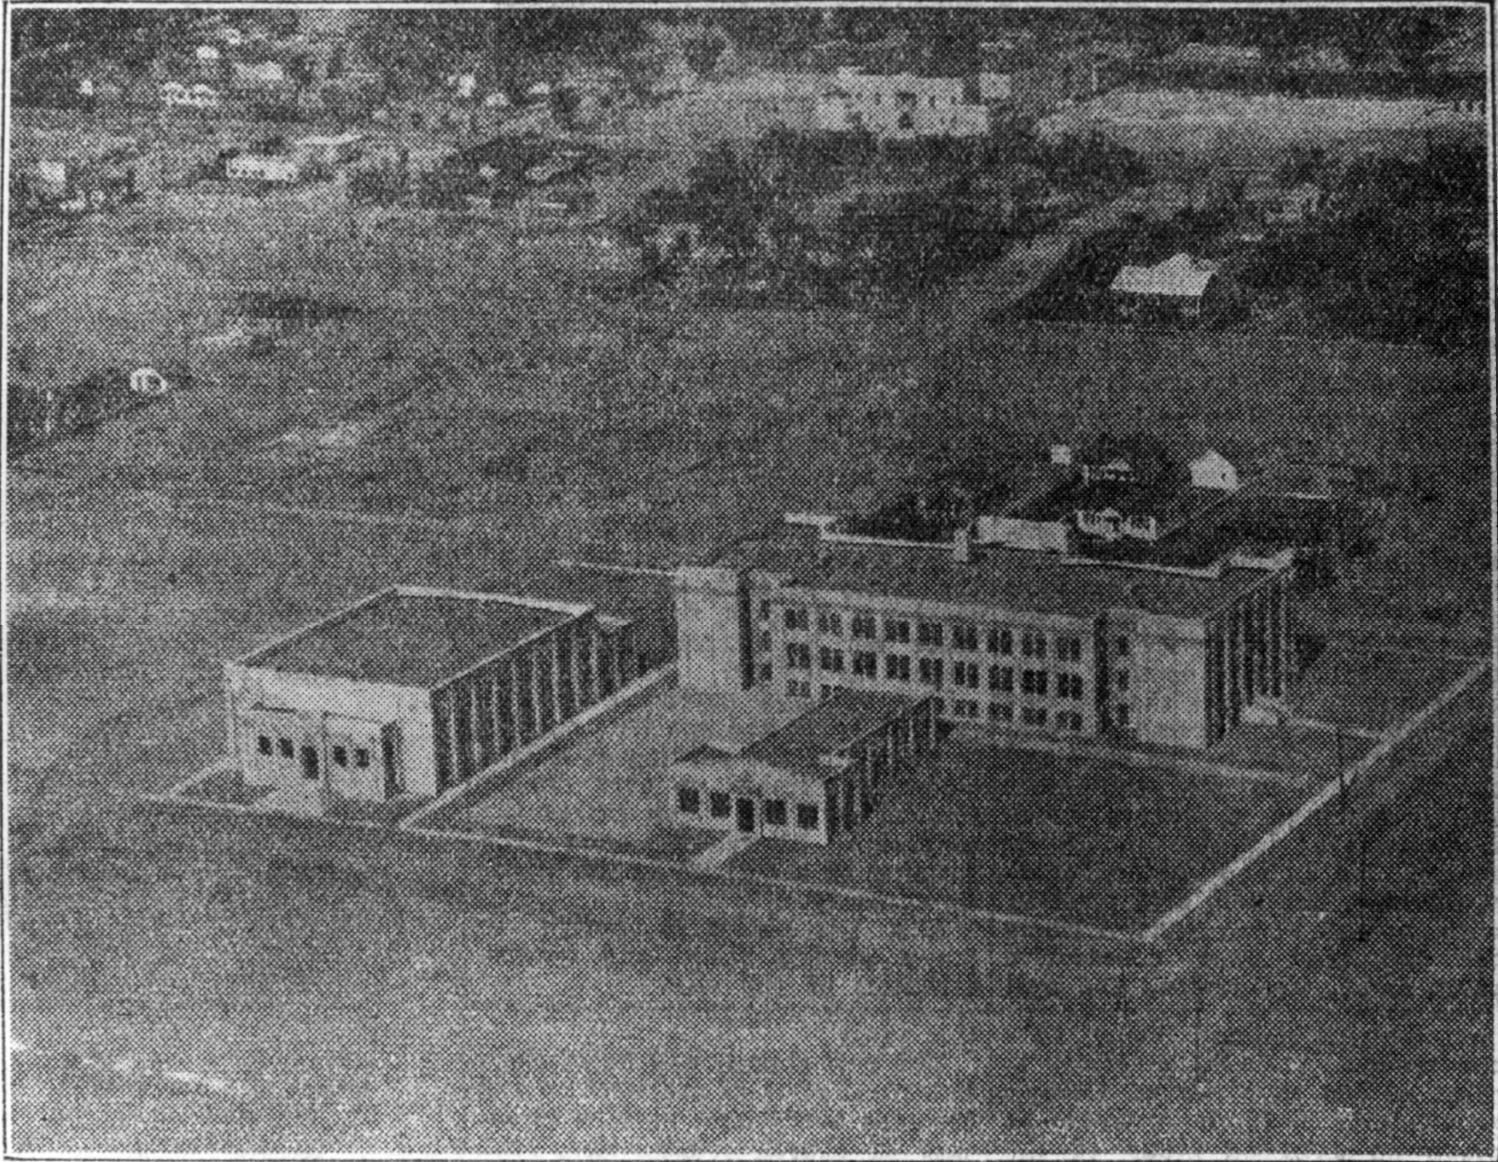

View north looking at south elevation.

Edward R. Knapp Humanities Building
315 South Seventh Street, Las Vegas, NV
PhotoL K. Kuranda, 1986
HP&A, Carson City, Nevada
View southwest looking at northeast elevation.

Photo 6 of 8

Looking Down at New High School Plant

How Las Vegas' new high school plant appears from the air, looking at it from the rear, or the east side. The gymnasium building is the second largest of the three units, at the reader's left. The smaller building is the shop. The old high school building, now used as a grammar school for the upper grades, is in the background. (Ullom Photo.)

ing increase ment, from ar over last ng increase system has n the situaschool ad-
Las Vegas
ly to Boulell.

endance in from 835 to high school indergarten close to the schools and able to ab-60 per cent ndance and standards to e, may be bute to the culty main-

most rethe history Vegas is of the Las in the 27
2. From a on the Old bracing the outlay rep-schools of a saga of
to the citi-
ne progress
schooling e growth of school was racken and ilding was oom boardcture, built treet bridge

h of town.
were admin-
es, Bracken Stewart as g year, 1905,
to a two-ground two weeks after the start and Miss Lester in charge. At adjoining the grammar school and system was c superintenden

neck, followe
Maude Frazie
tion today.
when she as Miss Frazier
been deputy tedent for sc
offices in th

It became ly after the high school l 1927, at the $100,000, thi
cilities woul
necessary, di
when the Bo began to be In 1929, con
sue providin
of the pres
passed by t
gas, provi
$350,000. T mediately b
the school or

Las Vegas High School

315 South Seventh Street, Las Vegas, NV

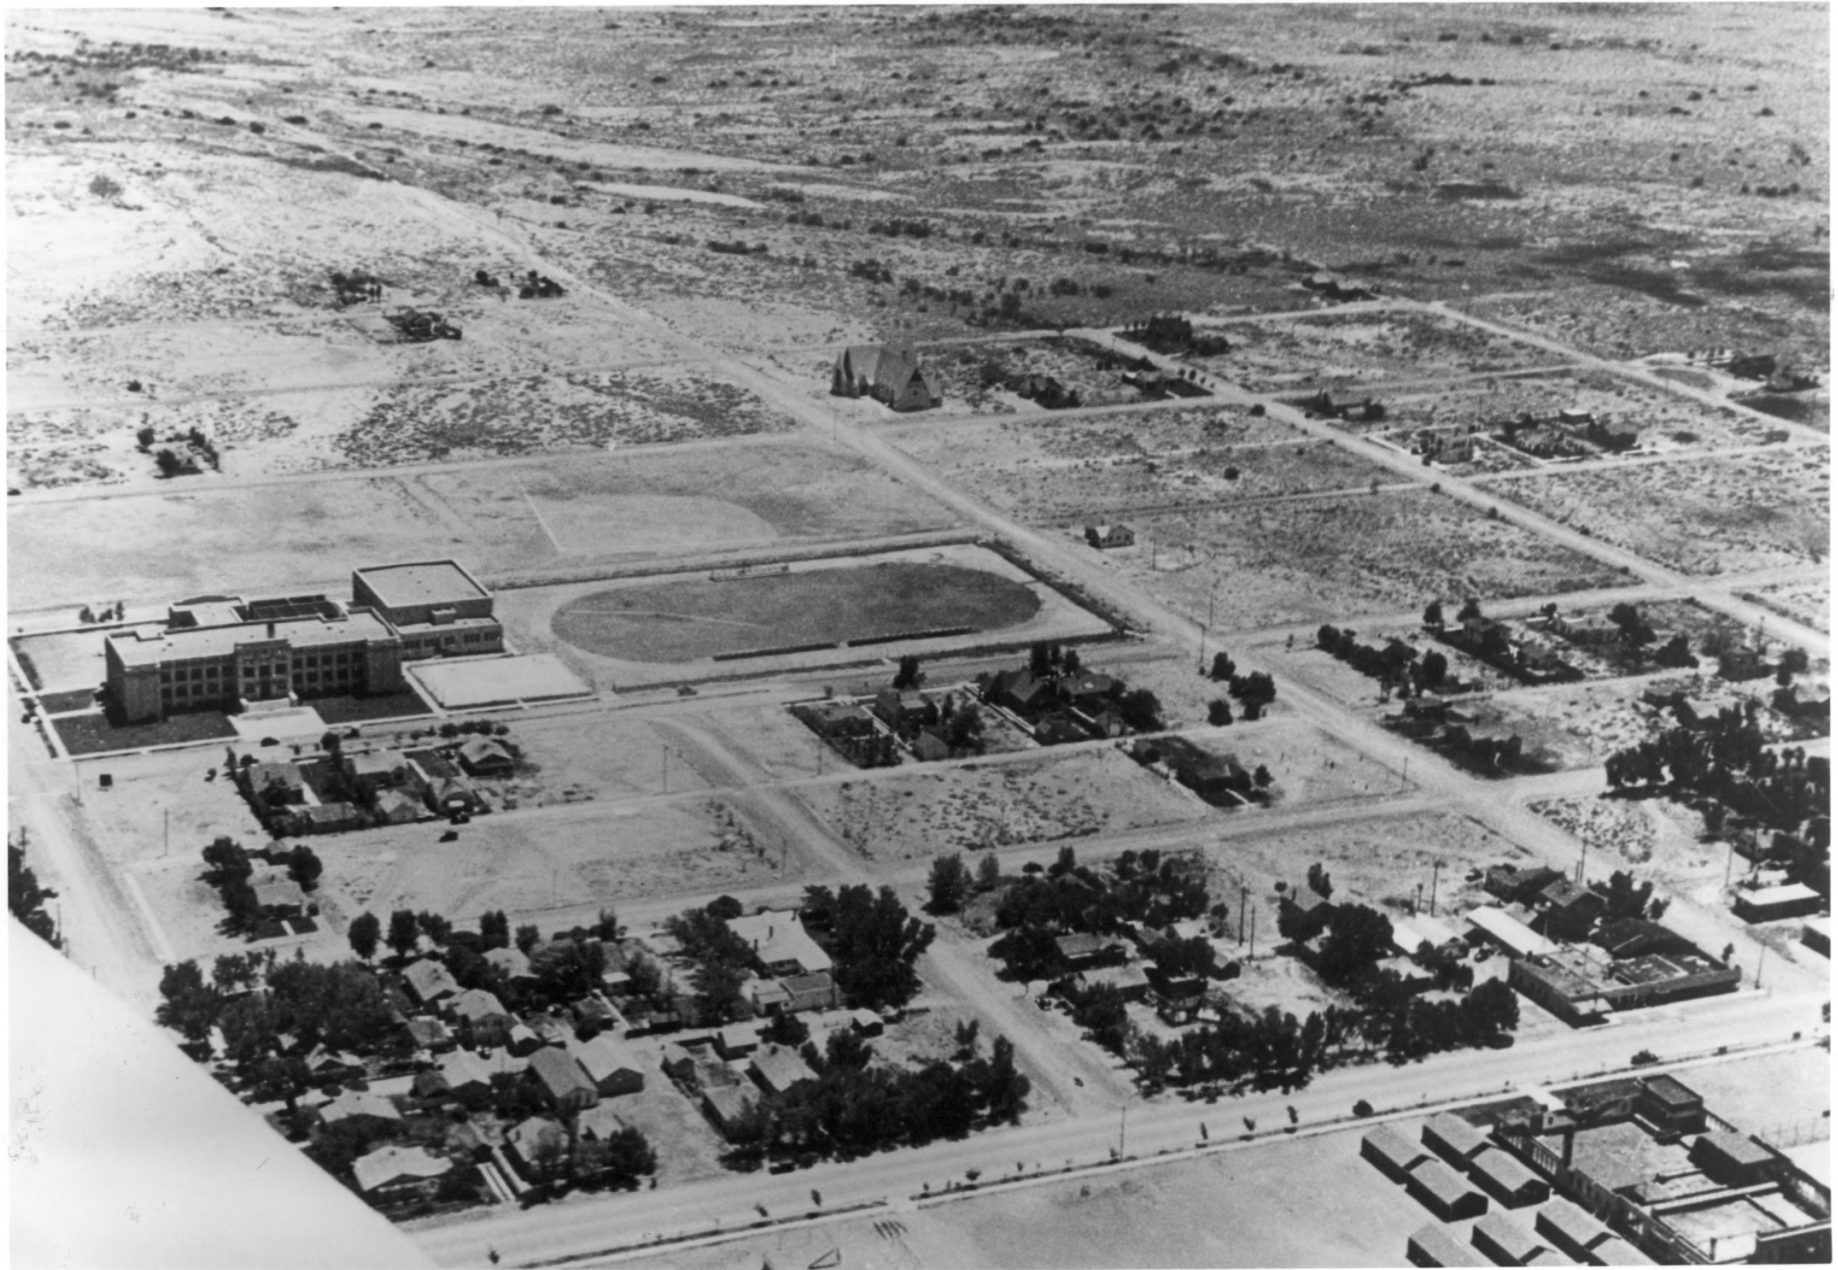

Photo: Las Vegas Evening Review Journal

1,15,32). Nevada State Museum and

Historical Society, Las Vegas, Aerial

Photo:

Photo 7 of 8

Las Vegas High School
315 South Seventh Street, Las Vegas, Nevada

Photo: Unknown c. 1932
University of Nevada Las Vegas,
Special Collections Department
Aerial Photo

Photo 8 of 8

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS DEPARTMENT
James R. Dickinson Library
University of Nevada, Las Vegas
Las Vegas, Nevada 89154

Spec. Coll. Neg. # 0014 0114

CREDIT LINE SHOULD READ: Photograph courtesy of MAURINE & FRED WILSON Collection University of Nevada, Las Vegas Library

NOTICE: This photograph may not be reproduced without written permission.

© 1980 UNLV

[Aerial of Las Vegas High School]