A black and white photograph showing a close-up, low-angle view of a brick building's facade. The word "ADJUTANT" is carved in large, raised, serif letters into a light-colored rectangular panel that is set into the dark brickwork. The panel is slightly recessed. To the right of the panel, the dark, dense foliage of a tree or large shrub is visible, partially obscuring the building. The sky is visible in the upper right corner, appearing bright and clear. The overall composition is a low-angle shot looking up at the building.
