A black and white photograph of a window. The window features a dark, multi-paned transom at the top, which is brightly lit from the outside. Below the transom is a large window pane covered with horizontal blinds. The window is framed by a dark, ornate wooden casing. The wall surrounding the window is light-colored. In the foreground, there is a dark, crumpled object, possibly a piece of fabric or a bag. A digital timestamp '2:19:02' is visible in the lower-left corner of the image.
