DESCRIBE THE P	RESENT AND OR	GINAL (if kn	own) PHYSICAL	APPEARANCE	·····

The building is located on the South side of First Street between

Main St. and Napa Creek in the City of Napa.

The lower floor front has ornate cast iron columns, large store front windows, and recessed doors.

2nd story facede has an ornamental iron balcony and parapet. The facade has polasters, devorative moldings, medallions, and a nameplate, capped by a stone cornice with date (1888) in the center of the pendant.

The upper floor windows are arched with decorative keystones; upper portion of the arch is surrounded by moldings. The red brick of the building is contrasted with white stone work in the window voussoirs.

Character of design is red brick contrasted by white stone molding Cornice supported by decorative scroll brackets. and trim.

Early photographs show that no major changes have been made.

Minor Changes include;

1. Temporary removal and storage of two stained glass windows from the second story of the building. This was done by the owners after the theft of the small center window. These windows are believed to have been brought to Napa from another building in Mariposa County by the building's original owner.

2. Loss (cause and date unknown) of 4 decorative stone pieces from the parapet.

The building is presently unoccupied.

This building is easily the most refined example of Italinate commercial architecture in Napa. A very carefully designed building for its period. This building has long been a landmark in downtown Napa. In Historic Preservation in Napa, the Napa Community Redevelopment Agency describes the building as one of the "Commercial structures of a unique and distinctive quality that contribute historic values to the Napa environment."

The Semorile family was prominent in Napa's early mercantile history. Members of the family are said to have been involved in the first Napa tannery and first Napa City brandy distillery, as well as the grocery business in this building. The Semorile family came originally from Portofino, Italy (in 1855) to Mariposa. They moved to the Napa Valley in the 1860's. The grocerey business in the Semorile Building was operated by Bartholomew Semorile and his sons.

Architect for the building is believed to have been L. M. Thurton, leading Napa architect at the turn of the century. The style of the building reflects the Gold Rush country from which the family had come.
