A black and white photograph of a women's restroom entrance. The door is dark and set within a light-colored frame. Above the door is a small, rectangular sign with the word "WOMEN" in bold, capital letters. Above the sign is a circular vent or light fixture. The wall is light-colored and features decorative brackets supporting a ceiling beam. The brackets are ornate, with a fluted top and a base decorated with floral or leaf patterns. The ceiling is also light-colored and has a decorative molding near the wall.
