A black and white photograph of a rustic outdoor setting. In the foreground, a large, tall stone fire pit stands on the left, with some dried grasses at its base. To its right, a low stone wall borders a paved area. In the background, a large, dark, oval-shaped sign is mounted on a stone base, with the words "ARROWHEAD LODGE" written in white, stylized letters. The scene is surrounded by tall pine trees and a grassy field. A dark, blurry object is visible in the upper right corner of the frame.
