NELLIE CASHMAN—Called the Angel of Tombstone—followed the mining Boom Towns from Arizona to Alaska. "A noble woman whose energetic, courageous and self-sacrificing life was an inspiration on the frontier for half a century," wrote John Clum, founder of the Tombstone Epitaph, 1880.

THIS IRISH IMMIGRANT LASS—recruited Miners and Cowboys in her restaurant to tear down the Gallows stand and build the First Catholic Church In Tombstone.
