

A black and white photograph of a three-story classical building facade. The ground floor features a portico with four fluted columns supporting a decorative entablature. The text 'THE LEWIS AGENCY' is carved into the frieze above the columns. A set of stairs with an ornate metal railing leads to the entrance. To the right, a sign on a post reads 'The LEWIS AGENCY REAL ESTATE & INSURANCE'. The second floor has a balcony with a decorative metal railing in front of three tall, narrow windows with shutters. The third floor has a decorative pediment with a central arch and two side scrolls. A white car is partially visible in the bottom left corner.
