

Holley-Mason Building
Spokane, Washington

Mark L. Brack

July, 1983

Washington State Office of Archaeology
and Historic Preservation

Main (west) facade, facing east

1 of 5

ES
ASS

2ND AVE

ONE WAY

ONE WAY

PRIME

Holley-mason Building
Spokane, Washington

Mark L. Brack

July 1983

Washington State Office of Archaeology
and Historic Preservation

Howard Street, west and south facades of the Holley- Mason Building, facing north

PARKING

PLEASE USE THE LOCK

Holley-Mason Building
Spokane, WA.

South elevation

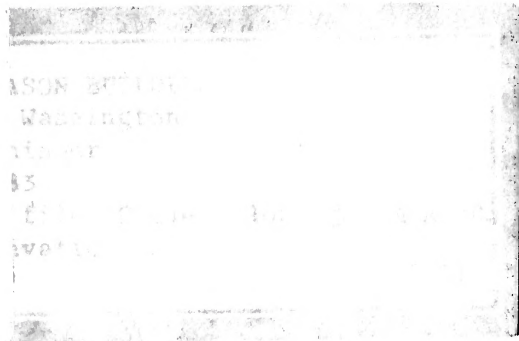

Holley-Mason Building
Spokane, Washington

Glen Cloninger
June 1983

Washington State Office of Archaeology
and Historic Preservation

South Facade, facing northwest

3 of 5

Mason Building
Spokane, W.A.

Brickwork and

Holley-Mason Building
Spokane, Washington

Glen Cloninger
June 1983

Washington State Office of Archaeology
and Historic Preservation

West facade, detail of brick and terra cotta work

4 Of 5

Glen Cloninger
6/83

Holley-Mason Building
Spokane, Washington

Mark L. Brack
July 1983

Washington State Office of Archaeology
and Historic Preservation

Interior: second floor showing reinforced concrete structural system

5 of 5