

The Ezra Meeker Mansion

front view exterior

note balcony above front porch

#(1) wood trim above second floor
on roof, iron railing of the widow's walk,

The large front porch is partly obscured by the fire escape, a necessary addition when the mansion was a nursing home

Photo taken May 1971

Slade Holmes, 8319 Valley Ave, Puyallup, Wash.

The Ezra Meeker Mansion
interior - fireplace mantel in the drawing room - hand carved mantel, imported tiles, original mirror
photo taken April 1970 by Pierce County
Herald, Puyallup

(2)

The Ezra Meeker Mansion

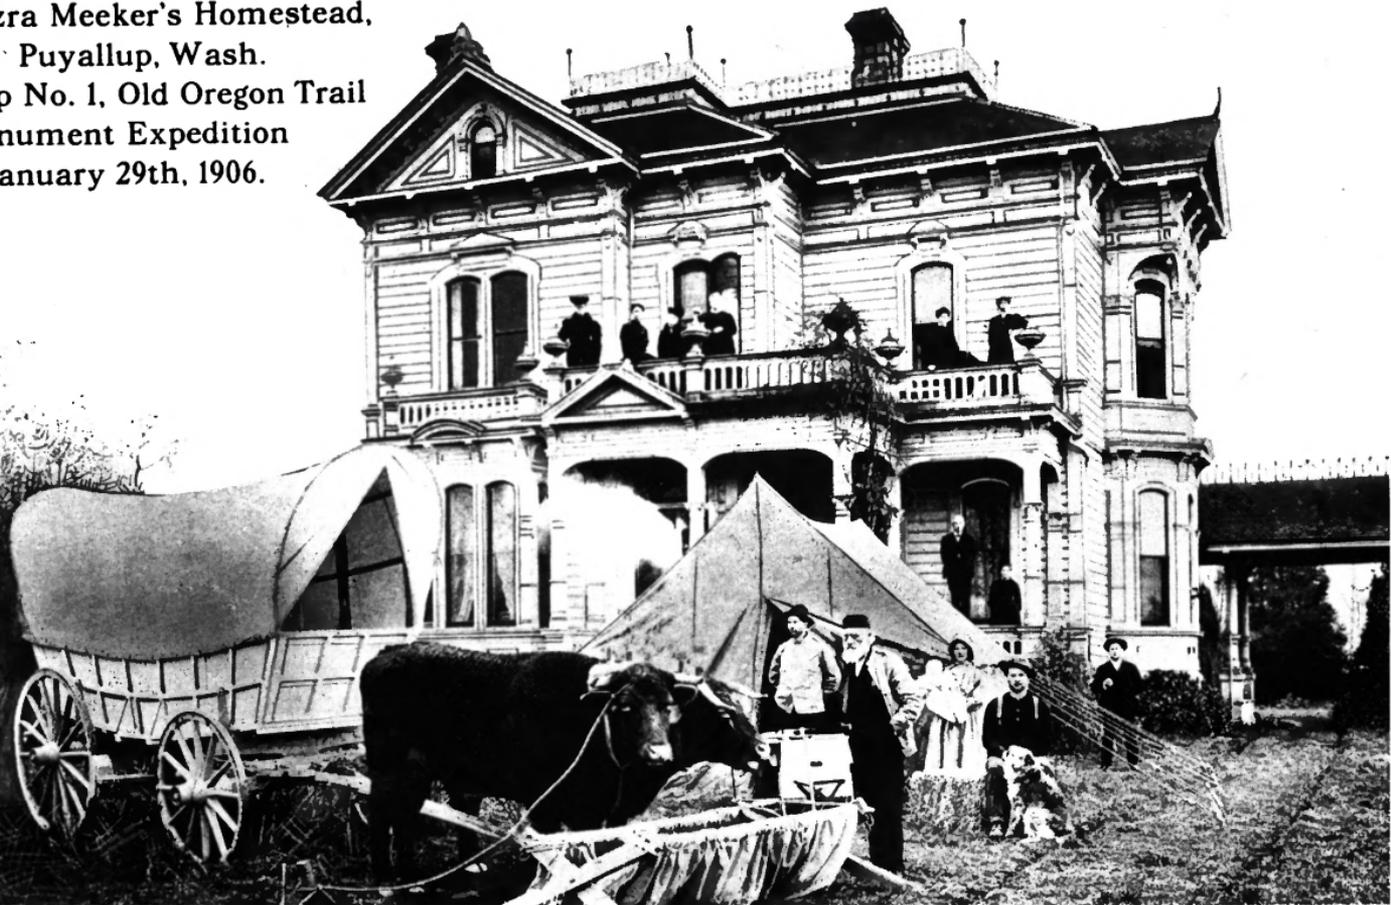

321 East Pioneer

Puyallup, Washington 98371

photo from Washington State Historical Society - date of photo - around 1900

(3)

12. Ezra Meeker's Homestead,
Puyallup, Wash.
Camp No. 1, Old Oregon Trail
Monument Expedition
January 29th, 1906.

Ezra Meeker Camped in his front yard before he left Puyallup to retrace the Oregon Trail Route. He wanted to make sure his equipment was suitable for the trip. The oxen and the wagon are the ones used to retrace the Oregon Trail January 1906. Photo from The Washington State Historical Society.

PUYALLUP

(4)

Handwritten initials or signature, possibly 'E. Meeker'.

The Ezra Meeker Mansion

(5) exterior

This photo shows the west side of the mansion with the carriage entrance. Note the iron railing of the widow's walk and the wooden trim under the eaves. The right side of photo is the back of the house, which faces south.

Photo taken May 1971

Slade Holmes, 8319 Valley Ave.

Puyallup, Wash.

The Ezra Meeker Mansion: exterior.

This photo shows the back view of the mansion, and the carriage entrance on the west side of the house. Note, stone foundation, bay windows on west and upper east side.

(6) Photo taken May 1971
Slade Holmes 8319 Valley Ave
Puyallup, Wash.