A black and white photograph of a church entrance. The scene is dominated by a large, light-colored column on the left and a pair of white, six-paneled double doors in the center. Above the doors, a small, dark rectangular plaque is mounted on the wall. The plaque contains text in a serif font, which is slightly faded but legible. The lighting is bright, creating strong shadows on the wall and the ground. The overall composition is vertical, emphasizing the height of the architecture.
