A black and white photograph of a road scene. On the left, a dark-colored car is driving away from the camera on a paved road. To the right of the road is a grassy area with a speed limit sign on a wooden post. The sign is rectangular with a white background and black text that reads "SPEED LIMIT 40". The background is filled with various trees, including some large, leafy trees on the left and several smaller, younger trees on the right. The sky is bright and clear.
