

Enlisted barracks and administrative buildings from 1907-09,
at Palm Circle, Fort Shafter, Oahu.

Richardson Hall (Pineapple Pentagon), T-100, at Palm Circle, Fort Shafter. The main entrance faces Palm Circle.

Photo by E. N. Thompson

May 1986

Typical 1907 barracks at Palm Circle, Fort Shafter, Hawaii.
The building now contains administrative offices. The exterior corridors have been partly enclosed.

Portions of T-101 and T-102, Pineapple Pentagon, Fort Shafter, Oahu.

Photo by E. N. Thompson

May 1986

Commanding General's residence at Palm Circle, Fort Shafter, Oahu. It is flanked by similar, but smaller, officers' quarters.

A portion of the mural in the entrance to Richardson Hall,
Palm Circle, Fort Shafter, Oahu.

Commanding General's office, Richardson Hall at Palm Circle,
Fort Shafter, Oahu.

Photo by E. N. Thompson

October 1983