

WILLIAM DRIVER

Captain of sea-going sailing vessels from Salem, Massachusetts, lived in Nashville in his later years. It was his flag, which he called "Old Glory," that was raised over the State Capitol when Federal troops captured Nashville in 1862.

WILLIAM DRIVER
MAY 18 1812
OCT 18 1882

FAMILY OF
WILLIAM DRIVER

NPS Number Oct. 18, 1972

Title: Nashville City Cemetery

Loc. Davidson Cty, Tenn
Grave Marker for
Capt. William Drimer

NPS Number

Oct. 18, 1972

Title:

Nashville City Cemetery

Loc.

Davidson City, Tenn.

Main entrance Gate at 4th ave. S. and Oak St.

29

CHARLOTTE KILVE
BORN 1845
DIED 1915
WIFE OF WILLIAM KILVE
MAY 18 1845
AUG 15 1915

GEN. JAMES ROBERTSON
BORN 1758 IN SCOTLAND
DIED 1835
AUG 15 1835

NPS Number

Oct. 18, 1972

(3)

Title:

Nashville City Cemetery

Loc.

Davidson Cty, Tenn

Graves of James Robertson and wife

WILLIAM CARROLL
A native of Pennsylvania,
as a young man came to Memphis as a business
assistant. Served as a Brigadier General under Andrew Jackson in the Creek war and the War of 1812. Served eight years as Governor of Tennessee, longer than any other Governor.

NPS Number Oct. 18, 1972

Title: Nashville City Cemetery

Loc. Davidson Cty, Tenn
Governor William Carroll's Tomb.

(5)

NPS Number Oct. 18, 1972

Title: Nashville City Cemetery

Loc. Dandridge Cty, Tenn
View across the cemetery
Looking north toward
The administration office