A black and white photograph of a two-story brick building. The building features a scalloped roofline and three large, arched windows on the second floor. Each window has a decorative arch above it. To the left, there is a smaller arched entrance with a dark awning. The letters "BSE" are visible on the awning. A small, rectangular window is located on the first floor to the left of the three large windows. A downspout is visible on the right side of the building. A large tree is on the left, and a large bush is in the foreground on the right.
