THIRD AVENUE ANTIQUES

The image shows a two-story building with a rough-hewn stone facade. The upper story has three windows with multiple panes. A dark horizontal sign with white lettering is mounted above the ground floor. Below the sign, a striped awning covers a dark doorway and a window. To the right, a large display window is visible. The building's roofline is topped with a decorative crenellated parapet. A small house number '18' is visible on the wall between the sign and the display window.
