

Photo 1. Rattlesnake Point Pueblo AzQ:11:118
Asm
Lyman Lake State Park
Apache County, Arizona.

Andrew Duff, photographer 1995
Negative with Dr Duff.

aerial view to site from southwest showing topographic setting; site is located at tip of ridge extending into lake in right-center of photo

#2 Rattlesnake Point Pueblo A2 Q:11:118 ASM

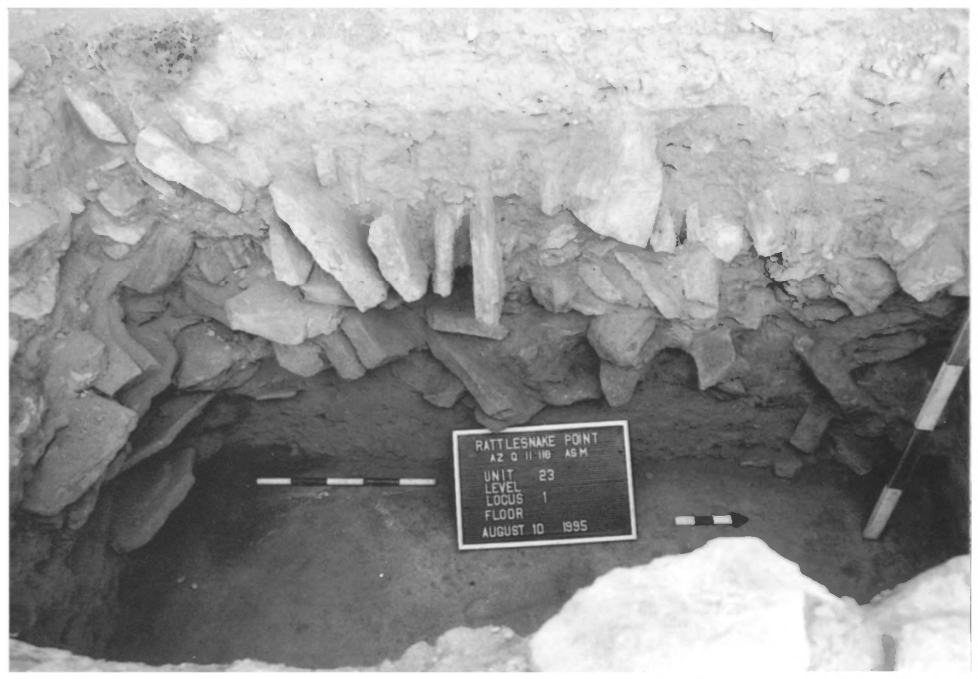

Hymen Lake State Park

Apache County, Arizona

ANDREW DUFF, photographer 1995

Negative with Dr. Duff

Aerial close up of site prior to excavation. Site is indicated by darker vegetation

A black and white photograph of an archaeological excavation. The site shows a deep pit with a floor of dark earth. The walls are composed of various sized rocks and stones. A central label provides site information. Two scale bars are visible: one horizontal bar on the left and one vertical bar on the right. An arrow points to the right from the label.

RATTLESNAKE POINT
AZ Q 11 116 AGM
UNIT 23
LEVEL 1
LOCUS 1
FLOOR
AUGUST 10 1995

3

Rattlesnake Point Pueblo

Az Q:11:118 Asm

Hyman Lake State Park

Apache County, Arizona

Andrew Luff, photographer 1995

Negative location unknown

typical stratigraphic profile of excavated rooms

Photo 4 Rattlesnake Point Pueblo AZQ:11:118
Lyman Lake State Park
Apache County, Arizona
Andrew Duff, photographer 1995
negative location unknown
Rooms 2, 6, 7 during excavation viewed from the South

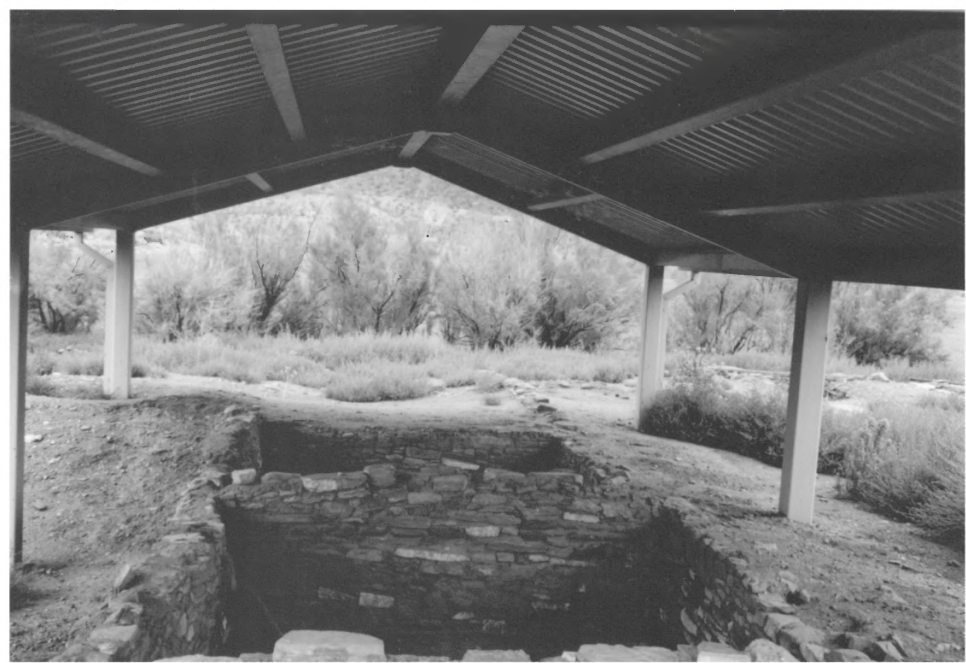

Photo 5 Rattlesnake Point Pueblo Az Q'11:118
Alm
Lyman Lake State Park
Apache County, Arizona
Andrew Duff, photographer 1997
negative with Dr Duff

Rooms 2 and 6 after stabilization, view from south.

Photo 6 Rattlesnake Point Pueblo
AZ Q:11:118-ASM
Lyman Lake State Park
Apache County, Arizona
Andrew Duff photograph, 1995
negative location unknown
Kiva (Room 31) after excavation