The Brandhoefer House, a three-story brick residence, was built in 1887 on a hilltop overlooking Ogallala, 10th and Spruce Street. The brick was fired in Ogallala and the cut stone was shipped from Lincoln.

The house contains nine rooms. The ceiling heights on the first floor are ten feet and the exterior walls are 16 inches thick. One of the most significant inclusions in the house are the two bathrooms, which were generally non-existent in residences of that region and period.

The tiles for the two fireplaces on the first floor were painted and glazed in New Jersey. The interior graining and painting was done by L. Saarby, a Denver artist. The hand-painted floral designs on the woodwork of the master bedroom represents the intricacies of this Victorian craftsman. Painted with hot oil paint, these designs have retained their original brilliance.

The wood cornice detailing and the exterior cast iron ornamentation complete the Victorian character of this prairie mansion.

In 1966 the Keith County Historical Society purchased the house and started restoration. In October of 1967 the house was dedicated as the Keith County Historical Museum.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Leonidas A. Brandhoefer, originally from Pennsylvania, settled in Nebraska in the early 1870's. He initiated a lumber business in York, Nebraska, Brandhoefer and Co. Lumber. In 1885 he sold the company and moved to Ogallala, where he took the cashier position at the Bank of Ogallala, one of the first banks organized in the community.

Mr. Brandhoefer started planning a new home in 1886 and construction proceeded in mid 1887. On July 17, 1887, he collapsed with a paralytic infliction of the spinal column. During his convalescency in York, his home was completed.

The financial struggles caused by his illness forced him to sell his house in 1888. Shortly after selling it Mr. Branhoefer resigned from the bank in order to find an occupation which would be of aid to his health.

By 1890 he was raising and shipping cattle and continued until the drought forced him out of business in 1892. In 1893 he moved to Omaha and later to Chicago, thus ending this man's development attempts in the West.

The Brandhoefer House is Ogallala's oldest brick landmark. The bricks were fired in Ogallala's first brick kiln and are the same as those specified for Keith County's original court house. Architecturally the house is one of Nebraska's best preserved examples of the Victorian Renaissance mode. Built in 1887, it was one of the first homes to express the popular eastern residential styles to the western settlements of Nebraska. The brick construction and eastern elegance was a sharp contrast to early Ogallala's prairie setting.
