No. 102 of 239

A black and white photograph of a single-story church building. The building has a dark exterior with a prominent gable roof on the right side. The gable is finished with light-colored horizontal siding. On the left side of the building, there is a set of double glass doors with a small set of steps leading up to them. To the left of the doors, the church's name and director's name are painted in large, white, sans-serif capital letters. There are two small, rectangular signs on the wall below the main text. The building is situated on a street with a curb, and bare trees are visible in the background under an overcast sky.
