BETHUNE-COOKMAN COLLEGE

Daytona Beach, Florida

THE MARY MCLEOD BETHUNE FOUNDATION — On the campus of Bethune-Cookman College. Established in 1953 by the late Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, Founder of Bethune-Cookman College; the late Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Dr. Marjorie Stewart Joyner and ten other Trustees. It is the former home of Dr. Bethune, where all of her memoirs, files and personal effects are kept for posterity. It is open to the public and thousands of persons - both young and old - pass through its portals each year. This project is sponsored by the Alpha Chi Pi Omega Sorority and Fraternity; the United Beauty School Owners and Teachers Association, of which Dr. Joyner is Founder-Supervisor, and the Danielsen Foundation, founded by Dr. and Mrs. Albert V. Danielsen.

Pub. by Dexter Studios, 645 N. Ridgewood Ave., Daytona Beach, Fla.
