EXIT

A black and white photograph of a staircase. The stairs are covered in a dark, patterned carpet and lead downwards. On either side of the stairs are dark metal handrails with decorative finials. Above the stairs, on the wall, is a rectangular sign with the word "EXIT" in bold, capital letters. To the right of the stairs, there is a large, brightly lit area, possibly an open doorway or a well-lit landing, which contrasts with the dimly lit staircase area.
