

HISTORIC PRESERVATION SURVEY

York Wells Ogunquit
County City/Town Street Address and Number
Scotch Hill

Name of Building/site: Charles Perkins
Common and/or Historic

Approximate Date: Mid to Late 1700's 18th Century Cape
Style: 1 Story with all

Type of Structure:
 Residential Commercial Industrial Other: acreage: 1/4

Condition: Good Fair Poor Tax Map 94 Lot 17

Endangered: No Yes

Surveyor: C. Moody Organization: Wells Hist Pres Comm Date: June 15, 1979

Rating: Owners: George & Elsie Johnson 1899 Main St. Glastenbury, Conn.

Historic Significance to the Community: Homestead of one of the earliest families in Wells

Human Interest (Folklore)

(For Additional Information - Use Reverse Side)

Research indicates that the house was probably owned by David Maxwell during the mid to late 1700's.

Architectually

Three fireplaces - one with bake oven wainscotting remains in two of the rooms

