was married to day to Howard Anderson. We were invited but did not go. This eve. I feel as if I might as well give up trying to do any thing for Dessa, she has no more regard for my feelings than as if I was some dishwash. It seems hard but I have done all I can do for the 3 weeks I have been here, & have to be insulted every day. Hereafter I will care for her as well as I can because it is my duty, and not expect any return for it I only wish I had not come down. Why she should change so is more than I can tell, I know I never let my pleasure come before hers.

Mon Jan 11

In one month my baby will be 12 years old. I got dinner for Dessa, but knowing she does not want my company I went down town. It seems so lonely every where. I think I never spent such a day. One little act of Dessas was kind, but I dare not notice it for I know by past experience it wont last. If "the potatoes were good" her mama wont be good enough for her as soon as we get out some where. In the eve. Dib came & to get rid of his company, we went to the hall. Mr Hany called twice before we went. When we got to the hall Dessa left me alone & ran in with the mob. I had to sit alone as usual till Frenchey came, & that was worse, I decided not to be snubbed so hurried out & Sib came along with out asking if he might. Mr Davis came up with us, & Chan came all out of breath, & asked where is Dessa. We found that he had forgotten something & of course. when he & Dessa came they had to have a teasing

Tues 12

The ground is white but it is soon gone. I worked on Dessas blue skirt Mr Davis bro't the table, Frenchey came in the P.M. My head gets worse all the time Chan & Dessa went to the hall. It is raining hard this eve, I could not sleep.
