SOUTHINGTON
1850
The first church in Southington was built in 1850. It was the first of its kind in the town and has since become a landmark. The church was built by the Southington Baptist Church and is now the property of the Southington Baptist Church. It is a fine example of the Gothic Revival style and is one of the best preserved churches in the town. The church was built on the site of an old meeting house and is one of the oldest buildings in Southington. It is a fine example of the Gothic Revival style and is one of the best preserved churches in the town.

TOWN OF SOUTHLINGTON

SOUTHLINGTON
 (Combined from other acts)

The Farmington Canal, opened in 1825, enabled Southington subscribers and farmers to ship goods north and south, to build the bridge along the waterway because the red dirt for the Canal Line had failed.

Southington was an early leader in the manufacture of many items, including brooms, brushes, pens, combs, lawnmowers, and carriage hardware. The rail and both industries established in 1840 by Wm. A. Ropes contribute to a vital business in Middlesex.

In close proximity to other industries, Southington remains a flourishing industrial area. Fruit growing is the major agricultural occupation.

Approved by the State on September 1, 1970
