STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	VIIII9

Damariscotta is situated near the centre of Lincoln County, on the eastern side of a river of the same name. Nobleboro bounds it on the north, Bristol on the south, Bremen on the east, and Newcastle on the west. The Damariscotta River separates it from the last, and Biscay and Pemaquid Ponds, lying on the eastern line, divide the town from Bremen. This town formed a part of the Pemaquid Patent, and was first settled about 1640 by some persons who left Pemaquid in search of new and easy fields for their enterprise. The land titles in this town shared in those controversies with which the Pemaquid Patent was harassed. During the Indian wars the settlers were frequently driven off by the savages, and sometimes massacred. Damariscotta was a part of Nobleoro from the incorporation of that town until 1847, when it was set off and incorporated. A part also was included in Bristol. It was named for Damarine, the Indian sachem of Sagadahoc (called Robin Hood by the English). The Damariscotta Oyster Shell Heaps lie one mile north of this town. This was an important gathering place for the Indians. It took more than 140 years for the colonists to finally subdue the Indians in Maine, and it was not until 1748 that safe and permanent settlement could be made in Damariscotta.

The first permanent settler was Anthony Chapman.of Ipswich, Massachusetts. The builder of the Chapman-Hall House now under consideration was Nathaniel Chapman. He was the half-brother of Anthony, and a house builder in Ipswich, Massachusetts. He was persuaded to come to Damariscotta to build homes for the handful of settlers who had set up crude dwellings. He is the builder of the now-preserved Chapman-Hall House Museum on Main Street at the corner of King Street. This house, Nathaniel's home, was completed in 1754. Nathaniel once owned nearly all of what is now Damariscotta's Main Street and is therefore rightfully referred to as the "father of Main Street, Damariscotta." It would not appear that Nathaniel Chapman earned historic significance beyond the environs of Damariscotta.
